*The milestone dates accompanied by an asterisk are target dates subject to change

**The time required to negotiate and execute Definitive Agreements typically varies by transaction type and depends upon numerous other factors. Similarly, the date on which the regulatory approval process concludes for a transaction turns on the execution date of the Definitive Agreement, the amount of docket congestion, the issues presented by the regulatory approval request, and other circumstances that can differ materially from transaction to transaction. EML reserves the right to require regulatory approval prior to providing Bidder with FNTP at its sole and absolute discretion.
